

Connecticut Conference on Hoarding
“Legal Aspects of Hoarding”
Friday, September 6, 2019 ~ 9:00am – 4:00pm at Central CT State University
Alumni Room, Student Center

The Connecticut Hoarding Working Group invites you to its Fifth Annual Conference on Hoarding!

Hoarding Disorder is a mental health issue which impacts a significant part of our communities. The content of this conference will focus on identifying Hoarding as a medical diagnosis and navigating complex legal systems which often become involved when hoarding behavior impacts the functioning and safety of the individual and others. This conference will focus on the legal rights and interventions for both the community and individual in cases involving hoarding conditions and people with Hoarding Disorder. This presentation will be particularly beneficial for legal professionals, social service providers, clinical therapists, health and safety code officials, as well as other professionals hoping to acquire or expand upon their knowledge of Hoarding Disorder and intervention strategies.
